

Appendix A to the filing, proposed to become effective December 12, 1998.

Nautilus states that the purpose of this filing is to update Nautilus' Original Volume No. 1, FERC Gas Tariff to reflect the substitution of an Internet Web Site and Internet Web Shipper for the electronic bulletin board previously used. Nautilus also proposed other minor changes to update these sheets by (1) changing date references; and (2) clarifying whom the signing party is and the associated title.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Overthrust Pipeline Company; Notice of Motion To Withdraw Tariff Filing

November 17, 1998.

Take notice that on November 6, 1998, Overthrust Pipeline Company filed a motion to withdraw its September 17, 1998 FERC Gas Tariff filing in the captioned docket.

Overthrust had filed to revise tariff language applicable to the sale of firm transportation capacity to be consistent with that approved by the Commission for Questar Pipeline Company, the operating partner of Overthrust. On October 16, 1998, the Commission accepted the filed tariff sheets and suspended them for five months and ordered a technical conference.

Overthrust, in its motion, states that any efficiencies Overthrust expected to obtain would be lost by the five month suspension, and therefore has moved to withdraw its September 17, 1998 filing.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
